Brian L. Danner

11-08-71

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

	CHAPTER 11
Creditor, Pro Se	CASE NO: 19-23649
V.	MOTION = Extension of
Purdue Pharma L.P. et al,	time "Bar Date" request
debtors

I
Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This is a chapter 11 Bankruptcy case claim in which the creditor Brian Lee Danner, begs this Great court for his claim to be recognized as being filed timely. This court has the authority under the Federal rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9006 (b)(1), this creditor is requesting For Legal Use Only for what constitutes as, "excusable neglect", to be applied to his claim. This creditors Personal Injury Claimant Proof of claim form, (claim no: 618573) and General, OPoid Claimant Proof of claim form, (claim no: 618542) where filed by the Purdue

Pharma Claims Processing Center days after the July 30, 2020
Bar Date.

The creditor, Brian Lee Danner request for the following facts to be applied to the reasoning in which this Great Court will be able to make an informative and knowledgeable decision.

II. Facts

a. The global pandemic has slowed and even halted my life. Due to the nation wide lockdown my ability to communicate and correspond has become hindered and also come to a standstill at times this was out of my control.

For Legal Use Only

b. At the time this creditor Brian Lee Danner tried to acquire the required claim documents the United States Postal Service was lacking in funds and due to that the affected States where informed mail would be late for outgoing and incoming

This delay transpired at the same time and several months prior to and after the courts new "Bar Date". This was out of my control.

C. I am currently incarcerated and have been in the Spokane County Jail since May 3rd 2020 in Washington State. Here at the Spokane County Jail I only receive 2 hours of out time a day and "no" publications are allowed except for the U.S.A. Today and that has to be purchased from an outside vendor.

I am an Independent inmate so I am unable to purchase the U.S.A. Today. So I am ignorant to what all is transpiring in the outside world and its ongoing.

For Legal Use Only

As soon as I could I sent a request for forms to the Purdue Pharma claims Center % Prime clerk on or about the month of October, 2020. I received an acknowledgement on November 4th, 2020 my claim was received and processed (see exhibit 1) Proof of acceptance.

See exhibit 2 - Proof of Incarceration.

I, Brianke Danner, did attempt to file my claim forms in the fastest time frame possible with regards to my current incarceration and constant state lock downs due to the Global Pandemic which is completely out of my control.

III legal claims

The creditor, Brianke Danner, alleges he attempted to follow the courts requirements and rules as best as he was physically capable of doing in respect to his current incarceration.

This creditor "Acted in good faith"

(Fed rules Bankr. Proc. Rule 9006(b)(1)

11 U.S.C.A. CUI GUF (Lux) master

S.C.R.I. v. Lehman Bros. Holdings Inc. 445 B.R. 137 (S.D. N.Y. 2011).

This creditor is the movant requesting for the acceptance of this claim's extension of Bar Date so this creditors claim may be recognized as timely.

"Excusable Neglect Standard that governs a creditor's ability to file a Proof of claim after the expiration of the claim bar date is a flexible one, and excusable neglect may include inadvertence, mistake or carelessness, as well as intervening circumstances beyond the creditor's control. (Fed. B. Bankr. P. 9006(b)(1). In re Motors Liquidation Company, 576 B.R. 761 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 2017) Under the excusable neglect standard governing the filing of late Proofs of claim, Congress plainly contemplated that courts would be permitted, when appropriate, to accept late filings caused by inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, as well as by intervening circumstances beyond a Party's control. (Fed. B. Bankr. P. 9006(b). In re Energy Future Holdings Corp., 619 B.R. 99 (Bankr. D. Del. 2020).
